I am honored to say a few words of introduction for this RMOC and its signing, between:

- SCCA,
- Indonesian Corporate Counsel Association,
- Association of Corporate Lawyers, Sri Lanka, and
- In-house Counsel Forum, Korea.

What does the RMOC mean for you?

We all know that being in-house is very challenging, and to excel and lead, we absolutely need and benefit from forums and conferences like this. Of course, we can benefit with "Singapore ONLY" participants, but, I think we all share the view that we really need each other's synergy and support; from the APAC region, and Internationally, so the more the better.

That international cross fertilization is what this RMOC and agreements like it deliver.

The major points of the Memo include:

- 1) Information Exchange: – i.e. events, articles, publications, etc.;
- 2) Work to Expand Joint and Supporting Activities: for conferences such as this one.
- 3) Website Links;
- 4) Attend Regional Partner's Meetings at that Regional Partner's Rates.

In the coming years, the SCCA hopes to sign with many other APAC Partners, including India, China, Japan, and as many others as possible.

International Aspect: We are not confined to APAC, of course. Our strategy for SCCA is to take a lead in APAC, and after growing the APAC group to an economy of scale, we plan to join into a similar international relationship SCCA currently has, in the form of an International Cooperation Agreement with our current partners comprising

- Australia,
- New Zealand,
- Canada,
- South Africa,
- Hong Kong, and
- Malaysia.
